I. HISTORY OF THE CHURCH AND SOCIETY.

THE Parish or Society of Worthington belonged to, and constituted a part of, the society of Kensington, until 1772, when it was separated from it by an act of the "General Assembly of the Governor and Company of the Colony of Connecticut," holden at New Haven, and has since been a distinct ecclesiastical society.

The first meeting of the "Inhabitants of Worthington Society," under the above act of incorporation, was held on the 23d day of November, 1772, at the house of Doctor James Porter.

The meeting house, now occupied as a town hall, was opened for the first time for divine service on Thursday, the 13th day of October, 1774, and was occupied by the congregation until the erection of the present meeting-house, which was dedicated to the worship of God the 26th of February, 1851.

The Church was organized by the South Consociation in the county of Hartford, on the 9th day of February, 1775, at which time thirty-eight male members signed a Confession of Faith and Covenant, and were thereby "constituted, formed, and embodied a particular and distinct Church." On the 22d of February of the same year, this number was increased to one hundred and four, male and female.

The number and succession of ministers of the Church have been as follows : The first was

Rev. Nathan Fenn, who was ordained May 3, 1780. He was a native of Milford in this State. He was graduated at Yale College in 1775. He died in the midst of his usefulness, April 21, 1799, in the fiftieth year of his life, and the nineteenth of his ministry. Those citizens who remember him still fondly cherish his memory, and attest the truth of the epitaph on his tombstone : "In his pastoral office, faithful ; in the duties of piety, constant ; in every relation, kind and affectionate; and to all mankind, hospitable and benevolent."

Rev. Evan Johns succeeded Mr. Fenn, June 9, 1802, at which time he was installed pastor of the Church. He was a native of Wales ; received his education in England, where he was sometime minister at Bury St. Edmunds, in the county of Suffolk. He emigrated to America in 1801. He was dismissed February 13, 1811.

Mr. Johns was afterwards pastor of the First Congregational Church in Canandaigua, New York, from 1817 to 1823, and died in that town, May 6, 1849, at the advanced age of eighty-six.

Rev. Samuel Goodrich, the third pastor, was installed May 29, 1811. He was a son of Rev. Elizur Goodrich, D.D., and was born at Durham in this State, January 12, 1763. He was graduated at Yale College, 1783, and ordained at Ridgefield in 1785. After a successful ministry in that place of twenty-five years, at his own request, he was dismissed, and during the same year, 1811, became pastor of this Church. He was dismissed by his request, Nov. 11, 1834, and died April 9, 1835, in the seventy-third year of his age, and forty-ninth of his ministry.

Prior to the installation of Mr. Goodrich, the records of the Church appear to be defective in regard to members admitted. But during his ministry and that of his successors greater particularity has been observed. The Church has been favored with some precious revivals, and during several years her numbers have been greatly increased.

The most favored years during the ministry of Mr. Goodrich were those of 1812, during which forty-seven were admitted; 1815, twenty-five; 1821, forty-two; 1829, thirty-nine.

Rev. Ambrose Edson, the fourth pastor, was a native of Brimfield, Mass., where he was born December 10, 1797. He fitted for college at Monson Academy, and entered at Nassau Hall, New Jersey, one year in advance. Before his class graduated he entered the Princeton Theological Seminary, and was licensed to preach in 1823. He was ordained at Brooklyn, Conn., April 14, 1824, and was dismissed, at his own request, December, 1830. On the 15th of June, 1831, Mr. Edson was installed colleague pastor with Mr. Goodrich. His health, however, not long after his settlement failed, and both himself and the senior pastor, at their joint request, were dismissed November 11, 1834. The death of Mr. Edson occurred at Somers, Conn., August 17, 1836.

Within a few months following the installation of Mr. Edson, a revival commenced which resulted in the addition of twenty-one to the Church. Many of the preceding, and all of the succeeding revivals enjoyed by the Church and congregation are indicated by the dates of the reception of members on profession of faith in the catalogue.

Rev. James M. McDonald, D.D., the next pastor, was ordained April 1, 1835. He was a native of Saco, Maine. He received his collegiate education at Brown University, R. I., and his theological education at Yale College. At his request, Mr. McDonald was dismissed, November 27, 1837. Soon after he became pastor of a Congregational Church in New London, Conn., and some time after removed to Jamaica, L. I., where for several years he had charge of a Presbyterian Church. He was afterwards settled in New York city. Still more recently he has taken the oversight of a church at Princeton, N. J.

The sixth pastor was Rev. Joseph Whittlesey. He is a native of New Preston in this State, in which town he spent his early life and fitted for college. He graduated at Yale College in 1825, and pursued his theological course of study in the seminary of that institution. He was ordained as pastor of the Congregational Church in Stonington, in 1830, where he remained for several years. He then was settled as pastor of the Center Congregational Church in Haverhill, Mass., and after a residence of some years in that place was dismissed April 18, 1838, and was installed pastor of this Church, May 8, 1838. At his own request, on account of failing health, he was dismissed August 9, 1841.

Rev. W. W. Woodworth, the seventh pastor, was born in Middletown Upper Houses (now Cromwell), October 16, 1813; spent five years of his boyhood in Fayetteville, N. C., and six years in Durham, Conn.; learned a trade in Bridgeport; left it at nineteen years of age; fitted for college in Middletown; graduated at Yale; studied theology at Yale and Andover, and was ordained pastor of this Church, July 6, 1842, and dismissed, at his own request, April 26, 1852. He was installed pastor of the First Congregational Church in Waterbury, September 29, 1852.

Rev. William De Loss Love was installed pastor of this Church October 5, 1853; was dismissed, November 29, 1857, to accept a call to the Spring Street Congregational Church, Milwaukee, Wis.

Rev. R. C. Learned was born at New London, August 31, 1817; graduated at Yale College, 1837; studied theology at New Haven and Andover. Having been settled at Twinsburg, Ohio, and Canterbury, Conn., he was installed as pastor of this church, December 1, 1858, and dismissed April 1, 1861. He was subsequently pastor at Plymouth, Conn.

Rev. Wilder Smith, born at Boston, Mass., July 17, 1835; graduated at Yale College, 1857; ordained at Berlin, January 15, 1862; dismissed November 5, 1866, to accept a call to the Hanover Street Church, Milwaukee.

Rev. Leavitt H. Hallock, born August 15, 1842. Graduated at Amherst College; studied theology at Hartford; was ordained July 18, 1867, and dismissed to West Winsted February 12, 1873.

Rev. Jesse Brush was installed pastor on July 2, 1873, and was dismissed, September 22, 1875.

Rev. W. W. Woodworth, D.D., was installed pastor January 6, 1876, and died from injuries resulting from the upsetting of his carriage, June 14, 1890.

Rev. Thomas Clayton was called, September 1, 1890; commenced work September 15th, and installed December 2d, same year.

II. GOVERNMENT OF THE CHURCH.

The Nature and Rights of the Church. This Church holds that any association of believers, organized for the purposes of public religious worship, mutual watchfulness and administration of the New Testament Sacraments, constitutes a church of Christ; that such a body has, under Christ, full power to regulate all its internal affairs according to the principles and doctrines of the Scriptures, and that it is free and independent.

Relation to other Churches. This Church regards the communion and mutual counsel and watchfulness of all similar bodies of believers as a natural development of the Christian life, and will extend to other evangelical churches and receive from them all that fellowship, advice, and assistance which the laws of Christ require.

RULES OF ORDER.

I. BUSINESS MEETINGS.

1. The Annual Meeting of the Church shall be held on the Friday preceding the first Sabbath of January. At this meeting reports shall be submitted by the (Standing) or Church Committee, the Clerk, and the Treasurer. A Clerk, Treasurer, and two members of the Church Committee shall be chosen; a schedule for the benevolent contributions of the ensuing year shall be adopted, and such other business transacted as may be thought necessary.

2. Special Business Meetings may be called by the Pastor or Church Committee, or at the request in writing of ten members of voting age, notice in each case being read from the pulpit on the previous Sabbath.

3. Ordinary Business, such as the reception or dismission of members, may be transacted at any regular Church service.

4. Order of Business Meetings. All meetings for business shall be opened with prayer. The Pastor shall be moderator of all ordinary business meetings; at the annual meeting and all special meetings a moderator shall be chosen at the time.

5. All members of the Church in good standing, who are eighteen years of age and over, are entitled to vote in Church meetings, and, unless otherwise determined, a majority vote shall rule.

II. OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES.

The officers of this Church shall be a Pastor, three or more Deacons, a Clerk, Treasurer, and Church Committee.

1. The Pastor shall be a properly ordained minister of the Gospel, elected by ballot, and installed in his office by and with the advice of sister churches, called in council; his dismission shall be effected in like manner.

2. The Deacons shall be elected by ballot and continue in office for life, unless they resign or are deposed for unchristian conduct. Their duties shall be to provide for and minister at the Lord's Table; to care for the poor and sick of the Church; to assist the Pastor in his various labors for the welfare of the Church, and in his absence provide for the services of the pulpit.

3. The Clerk and Treasurer shall both be elected by ballot. The Clerk shall keep a correct record of all the transactions of the Church, and a complete roll of its members. The Treasurer shall keep an account of all moneys received and expended.

4. The Church Committee shall consist of the Pastor,

Deacons, Clerk, Sunday-school Superintendent, and six brethren, two of whom shall be elected at each annual meeting, to hold office for three years. None of them shall be eligible for re-election until one year after the expiration of his term of office.

It shall be the duty of this Committee to examine all candidates for admission to the Church, and to recommend to the Church such as they think qualified to become members; to investigate and bring before the Church cases of discipline; to recommend to the Church objects for benevolent contributions; and to have a general oversight of the ordinary affairs of the Church.

5. There shall be a Music Committee of three, elected annually, who shall, in conjunction with the Pastor, take charge of the music of the Church.

III. ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

1. Persons are received into membership with this Church upon confession of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, or by letters of commendation from other churches.

2. Candidates for admission to the Church upon confession of their faith must meet the Church Committee, and upon its recommendation be publicly propounded to the Church one week previous to their admission. If accepted by vote of the Church they shall become members, upon publicly assenting to the Creed and confessing their faith, according to the form for the reception of members. If not previously baptized, they must receive baptism before assenting to the Covenant.

3. Members of other Churches bringing letters of dismission and recommendation will present the same to the pastor or some member of the Church Committee, and upon approval of the Committee the letters shall be publicly read to the Church, and accepted by a majority vote of the members present.

4. Members of Churches whose rules forbid them to give letters of recommendation to this Church may be received on a certificate of their regular standing after assenting to the Creed and Covenant.

5. It is expected that members of other Churches who desire to commune with this Church more than one year, will bring letters and enter into Church fellowship with us.

IV. DISMISSAL OF MEMBERS.

This Church will, by vote, grant letters of dismissal and recommendation to its members in regular standing, for their connection with other evangelical churches of all denominations. All requests for letters shall first be presented to the Church Committee, and no letter shall be granted without a previous notice of one week given to the Church before the congregation. When dismissed persons are received to another church, they should give immediate information of the same to this Church, that they may be noted on the catalogue accordingly; and until such information is received their relation to this Church will not be considered as dissolved. If letters are not used within one year after they are given they shall be considered annulled; and such statement shall be appended in a note to each letter.

V. ABSENT MEMBERS.

It shall be the duty of every member of this Church who goes abroad to reside permanently to apply for a letter of dismissal and recommendation to some other evangelical church at the time of removal or within twelve months, unless some special reason shall be presented to the Church for the omission. But all persons receiving such letters will still be members of this Church until their admission by formal vote to some other. All members who neglect to comply with this rule for one year, after due notice given them, shall, by vote, be severed from the Church. If, however, they should afterward make satisfactory explanation or acknowledgment, they shall be restored and be entitled to a letter. If any asking letters shall have been absent more than one year, the letter granted shall make some mention of the same.

VI. DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS.

1. The object of discipline is to reclaim the erring, and only when this shall fail shall the Church resort to the extreme penalty of exclusion, for the vindication of its own purity before God and man.

2. In case of private offense, the member offended or aggrieved shall seek the removal of the offense in the spirit of the Gospel, presented by our Lord in Matthew xviii, 15-18.

He must first confer with the offender alone, in the spirit of meekness. Should he fail to remove the difficulty between them in this way, then let him take one or two judicious brethren, and with their mediation seek for Christian satisfaction. This proving in vain, he shall bring the matter to the notice of the Church Committee, who, in the name of the Church, shall endeavor to effect a reconciliation; and if this cannot be done, the offended brother or sister may prefer a formal complaint to the Church against the offending member. Should the Church entertain the complaint, a time for hearing the case may be set and an investigation be made.

3. In case of public offenses, such as immorality, rejection of our Creed, or violation of Covenant vows, the Standing Committee may investigate the case and bring it before the Church, without waiting for personal complaint; provided, reasonable efforts have been made by them to reclaim the transgressor.

4. When charges are made to the Church, the accused member shall, unless absent in parts unknown, be furnished by the Clerk with a copy of the charges in all their specifications, in seasonable time to prepare for defense, and be entitled to a full hearing. If, on such hearing, the Church is convinced of the guilt of the accused, it may cause him to be admonished, suspended from fellowship for a stated period of time, or excluded from membership.

5. Should the Church prefer, it may, at its discretion, refer the trial of the charges to a committee, who shall have all the authority the Church possesses to try the case. After having heard and tried the case, the Committee shall report the facts, with their opinion on them, to the Church, which opinion shall be final and conclusive, unless the Church shall allow a re-examination of the case upon the facts as found by said Committee. In the final decision of the case the Church shall inflict the penalty, as the motion of the Committee shall require.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL.

1. The Church shall maintain a general oversight of its Sunday-school, and elect all its officers, the Pastor being President ex officio.

2. The officers shall be a Superintendent, an Assistant Superintendent, Lady Superintendent of the Primary Department, a Secretary, Treasurer, Librarian, and Assistant Librarian.

3. The officers and teachers shall be the Executive Committee, and shall manage the general affairs of the school, subject to the pleasure of the Church.

4. The Superintendent may be elected by ballot; all the rest of the officers shall be elected on the nomination of a committee appointed by the Church at each annual meeting.

5. A Library Committee of not more than five members shall, with the Pastor and Superintendent, have full control of the selection of new books for the Sunday-school library.

VII. AMENDMENTS.

Amendments to these rules, or changes in the form for reception of members shall be made only by a two-thirds vote of all the members present at an annual meeting, or at a meeting regularly called for that purpose.

III. CREED OF THIS CHURCH.

THE CREED OF 1883.

I. We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible;

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who is of one substance with the Father; by whom all things were made;

And in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of life, who is sent from the Father and Son, and who together with the Father and Son is worshiped and glorified.

II. We believe that the Providence of God, by which He executes His eternal purposes in the government of the world, is in and over all events ; yet so that the freedom and responsibility of man are not impaired, and sin is the act of the creature alone.

III. We believe that man was made in the image of God, that he might know, love, and obey God, and enjoy Him forever ; that our first parents by disobedience fell under the righteous condemnation of God ; and that all men are so alienated from God that there is no salvation from the guilt and power of sin except through God's redeeming grace.

IV. We believe that God would have all men return to Him ; that to this end He has made Himself known, not only through the works of nature, the course of His Providence, and the consciences of men, but also through supernatural revelations made especially to a chosen people, and above all, when the fullness of time was come, through Jesus Christ His Son.

V. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the record of God's revelations of Himself in the work of redemption ; that they were written by men under the special guidance of the Holy Spirit ; that they are able to make wise unto salvation ; and that they constitute the authoritative standard by which religious teaching and human conduct are to be regulated and judged.

VI. We believe that the love of God to sinful men has found its highest expression in the redemptive work of His Son ; who became man, uniting his divine nature with our human nature in one person ; who was tempted like other men, yet without sin ; who by His humiliation, His holy obedience, His sufferings, His death on the cross, and His resurrection, became a perfect Redeemer ; whose sacrifice of Himself for the sins of the world declares the righteousness of God, and is the sole and sufficient ground of forgiveness and of reconciliation with Him.

VII. We believe that Jesus Christ, after He had risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, where, as the one Mediator between God and man, He carries forward His work of saving men ; that He sends the Holy Spirit to convict them of sin, and to lead them to repentance and faith ; and that those who through renewing grace turn to righteousness, and trust in Jesus Christ as their Redeemer, receive for His sake the forgiveness of their sins, and are made the children of God.

VIII. We believe that those who are thus regenerated and justified grow in sanctified character through fellowship with Christ, the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, and obedience to the truth ; that a holy life is the fruit and evidence of saving faith ; and that the believer's hope of continuance in such a life is in the preserving grace of God.

IX. We believe that Jesus Christ came to establish among men the kingdom of God, the reign of truth and love, righteousness and peace ; that to Jesus Christ, the Head of this kingdom, Christians are directly responsible in faith and conduct ; and that to Him all have immediate access without mediatorial or priestly intervention.

X. We believe that the Church of Christ, invisible and spiritual, comprises all true believers, whose duty it is to associate themselves in churches, for the maintenance of worship, for the promotion of spiritual growth and fellowship, and for the conversion of men ; that these churches, under the guidance of the Holy Scriptures and in fellowship with one another, may determine — each for itself — their organization, statements of belief, and forms of worship ; may appoint and set apart their own ministers, and should coöperate in the work which Christ has committed to them for the furtherance of the gospel throughout the world.

XI. We believe in the observance of the Lord's Day as a day of holy rest and worship ; in the ministry of the Word ; and in the two Sacraments which Christ has appointed for His Church : Baptism, to be administered to believers and their children, as the sign of cleansing from sin, of union to Christ, and of the impartation of the Holy Spirit ; and the Lord's Supper, as a symbol of His atoning death, a seal of its efficacy, and a means whereby He confirms and strengthens the spiritual union and communion of believers with Himself.

XII. We believe in the ultimate prevalence of the kingdom of Christ over all the earth ; in the glorious appearing of the great God and Our Saviour Jesus Christ ; in the resurrection of the dead ; and in a final judgment, the issues of which are everlasting punishment and everlasting life.

IV. FORM OF ADMISSION.

The Creed Commission of 1883 submitted for the use of the churches in the admission of members the following

CONFESSiON OF FAITH.

What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people.

Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father, which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

Dearly beloved, called of God to be His children through Jesus Christ our Lord, you are here that, in the presence of God and His people, you may enter into the fellowship and communion of His Church. You do truly repent of your sins; you heartily receive Jesus Christ as your crucified Saviour and risen Lord; you consecrate yourselves unto God and your life to His service; you accept His Word as your law, and His Spirit as your comforter and guide; and trusting in His grace to confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, you promise to do God's holy will, and to walk with this Church in the truth and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Accepting, according to the measure of your understanding of it, the system of Christian truth held by the churches of our faith and order, and by this Church into whose fellowship you now enter, you join with ancient saints, with the Church throughout the world, and with us, your fellow-believers, in humbly and heartily confessing your faith in the Gospel, saying:—

I believe in God the FATHER Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in JESUS CHRIST, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the HOLY GHOST, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day He rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the HOLY GHOST; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

[Then should baptism be administered to those who have not been baptized. Then should those rise who would unite with the Church by letter. To them the minister should say:]

Confessing the Lord whom we unitedly worship, you do now renew your self-consecration, and join with us cordially in this, our Christian faith and covenant.

[The members of the Church present should rise.]

We welcome you into our fellowship. We promise to watch over you with Christian love. God grant that, loving and being loved, serving and being served, blessing and being blessed, we may be prepared, while we dwell together on earth, for the perfect communion of the saints in heaven.

"Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

[An alternative benediction, Jude 24, 25.]

V. FORM FOR INFANT BAPTISM.

The Pastor may read passages from the Gospels which tell of Christ's care for the children, such as Matt. 18: 1-5 and 10; Luke 18: 15-17; Mark 10: 16.

"For the Promise is unto you and to your children," Acts 2: 39.

The Father in heaven, from whom every family in heaven and earth is named, has conferred upon you a precious boon.

It is the privilege of Christian parents to consecrate their children to God in Baptism. We rejoice that you are about to avail yourselves of this privilege.

Baptism is the seal of that Covenant into which you wish to enter with your heavenly Father on the child's behalf, and the sign of those renewing influences of the Holy Spirit which you trust will be granted to the child for its salvation. You recognize your duty to train this child in love to God. Do you therefore promise to the best of your ability, to bring up your child in the nurture and admonition of the Lord ; praying for it, governing and instructing it; and setting before it a Christian example ?— Do you thus Covenant and Engage ? [The parents will answer "I do."]

The Minister in Baptising the child shall say, "A. B., I baptise thee, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

Here may follow a brief prayer.

VI. THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Recognizing the Mighty Hand of God in this great movement, we cordially welcome this Society as an integral part of our Church life and work. We take it under our protection and guidance, believing it will prove a great blessing to our young people, and a great help in promoting the interests of the Church in every department of activity.

CONSTITUTION OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Organized December 6, 1883.

Name.— This Society shall be called the " Berlin Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor."

Object. — The object shall be to promote an earnest Christian life in its members, to increase their acquaintance with each other, and to make them more useful in the service of Christ.

Membership. — The members shall consist of two classes, Active and Associate.

Active Members. — The active members of this society shall consist of all young persons who are willing to be ranked as decided Christians, either being already members of the Church, or looking forward to church membership at no distant date, and who are sincerely desirous to accomplish the object above specified; they shall become members upon being elected by the society, and by signing their names to the constitution, thereby agreeing to live up to its requirements.

Associate Members. — Any young persons not at present willing to be considered as decided Christians may join this society as associate members. Such persons shall be entitled to all the social and religious privileges of the society, but shall have no responsibility for its management, and shall not be required to take part in religious meetings. It is hoped and expected that all associate members will ultimately become active members, and the society will work and pray for this end. The Lookout Committee shall satisfy themselves of the fitness of young persons to become members of this society, and shall recommend names for election.

Officers. — The officers of this society shall be a President, Vice-President, and Secretary, who shall also act as Treasurer.

They shall be chosen from the active membership, and their duties shall be such as usually fall to these officers.

Committees. — There shall also be a Lookout Committee, a Prayer-Meeting Committee, a Social Committee, an Out District Committee, a Sunday-school and Flower Committee.

The Executive Committee shall consist of the Pastor of the Church, the officers of the society, and the chairmen of the various committees.

Religious Meetings.—The regular prayer-meeting of this society shall be held every Sabbath evening before the regular public service. It is expected that all active members will be present at every meeting unless detained by some absolute necessity, and that all male members will take some part, however slight, in every meeting. The participation of the young lady members in the meetings is desired but not made thus obligatory.

Once a month a committee meeting shall be held at which all members, both male and female, will be expected to make some brief expression as to their continued Christian purpose, and their progress in the religious life.

Those who choose can express their feelings by appropriate texts of scripture.

At the close of the monthly meeting the roll shall be called, and the response of the active members who are present shall be considered a renewed committal of themselves to the service of Christ.

All active members necessarily detained from the meeting will be expected to send the reason for such absence by some one who attends. If any member is absent without excuse from three successive monthly meetings, such a one shall no longer be regarded as a member of the society, and the name shall be stricken from the roll. Associate members who cease to attend the meetings, or who prove in other respects not worthy, shall also be dropped from the roll.

Attendance on the meetings of this society shall not be considered as a substitute for attendance on the other services of the Church, but as a means of training for all Church work.

Business Meetings and Elections.—Business meetings may be held at the close of any monthly meeting or at the call of the President. An election of officers and committees shall be held once in six months. Names shall be proposed by a nominating committee.

Miscellaneous.—Any other committees may be added and duties assumed by this society which in future may be deemed expedient.

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the society, provided notice of such amendment is given in meeting and recorded by the Secretary one month before action.

VII. STANDING APPOINTMENTS OF THE CHURCH.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

1. Regular Church services on the Lord's Day at 10.45 A. M. and at 7.30 P. M.
2. Sunday-school at noon.
3. Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at 6.30 P. M.

MID-WEEK SERVICES.

1. The weekly prayer-meeting is held every Thursday evening at 7.30.
2. The preparatory lecture is given on the Thursday evening preceding each Communion service.

3. The teachers' meeting follows the weekly prayer-meeting, at 8.30 P. M.
4. Other services may be held as pastor and Church may decide.

ANNUAL MEETINGS.

1. The annual meeting of the Church is held on the Friday preceding the first Sunday in January.
2. The annual meeting of the Ecclesiastical Society, on the second Monday of October.
3. The annual rental of pews, on or about April 15th.
4. The semi-annual meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E., on the first Monday evening of June and December.

VIII. BASIS OF UNION

BETWEEN THE CHURCH AND SOCIETY.

1. The Ecclesiastical Society shall hold the property, receive the income from it, and make all pecuniary engagements and payments.
2. In calling a Pastor, the Church and Society shall act as concurrent bodies, a majority of each being necessary to constitute a call; the Church first making choice, and the Society confirming.
3. When there is no settled Pastor the Deacons of the Church and the Society's Committee shall unitedly provide a supply for the pulpit, subject to instruction from the appointing bodies, and make any other necessary arrangements for ordinary religious services, and the Society will liquidate all reasonable expenses thereby incurred.

EXPLANATIONS.

The date of admission is prefixed to the names.

c — Signifies that the person was received by certificate from another church. All others were received on profession, except in some cases previous to June 15, 1831, where the mode of reception is not positively known.

d — Signifies that the person has been dismissed and recommended to another church. The date of his dismission is annexed if known.

e — Signifies that the person has been excommunicated.

w — Signifies that the church has withdrawn from the person, there not being sufficient offense, or evidence, to justify unqualified excommunication.

a — Signifies that the church has dissolved the special relation to the person on account of his absence for more than two years. [See rules.]

* — Signifies that the person is dead, and the figures next following show the year of the death, and the age of the person, if ascertained.

The name printed in italics, following the Christian name of a female, was her maiden name; when that is not known, a dash takes its place. A name in parentheses ( ) following the name of a female, is, or was, the Christian name of her husband. A name in brackets [ ] was the surname of a previous husband. 2d w., stands for second wife.

Numbers before names in the Alphabetical Index refer to the numbers prefixed to the same names in the Chronological Catalogue.

CHRONOLOGICAL CATALOGUE.

THE Church was organized February 9, 1775. The names of the thirty-eight male members who then signed a Confession of Faith and Covenant appear below in italic letters, in the same order in which they are found on the Church records, and probably the same in which they were affixed to the Confession and Covenant. John Allyn was the first Clerk of the Church, and served, it appears, until the date of Mr. Fenn's ordination.
